

Session 3

1:45 – 2:30 pm

Berkley:

One School, One Book: Literacy, Unity, and Connection

Kimberly Johnson – Media Specialist, South Carroll HS, Carroll Co.

Are you looking for a dynamic literacy program to unify your school? Learn how we use a One Book program to build literacy skills, engage students and teachers in a common text, foster interdisciplinary connections, addresses non-cognitive skills, and participate in schoolwide service.

ES/MS/HS

Session materials: https://drive.google.com/open?id=1APMS05_IUc_aknwMzoIqO-JoHU287-2Bz70-NW5rPY0 & <https://drive.google.com/open?id=13BFT8LOcFGjRpGbWxSCIi7aTYcAoRiLQbjPvDZFsUh8> & <https://drive.google.com/open?id=1cwEQU4Q7a--6C1xeiqUHGrR4Lo1pMWefOvKRxlFmv1U>

Franklin:

My Life is Normal, Too: Finding the Right Books for ELL Learners

Jacqueline Jules – Children’s Author and Poet

Not all children relate to stories of middle-class families with a pampered pet. At-risk readers need stories that depict their lives, too. Jacqueline Jules, award-winning author of the Zapato Power series and the Sofia Martinez series, will share what she has learned as both an author and an elementary school librarian about offering the right books to ELL learners. Bibliography provided.

ES

Session materials:

<https://drive.google.com/open?id=1BHV0ftuEH0eMiMLOyxeqIsWcxm7EbZvIFM5FxZVf4Yk> & <https://drive.google.com/open?id=1BHV0ftuEH0eMiMLOyxeqIsWcxm7EbZvIFM5FxZVf4Yk>

Crystal Room:

Using Strengths Finder to Discover Ways to Become Future Ready Librarians and Lead Our Staffs to Adopt New Technologies

Sarah Gobe – Library Media Specialist, Dr. Thomas L. Higdon ES, Charles Co.

Polly Callahan – Library Media Specialist, St. Charles HS, Charles Co.

Bethany Thornton – Library Media Specialist, Indian Head ES, Charles Co.

With all of the demands on teachers' time, how do we lure staff to engage in major change? We will show you how three librarians with different strengths led their schools to provide biweekly tech training, initiate school wide participation in STEM challenges and improve student research with OneNote.

ALL

Session materials: <https://drive.google.com/open?id=0B-qTmKesW1KbzBGcVM0aHNfRHhqRFhINjV3OFhWWnI3Y2Rj>

Turner:

Redesigning the Library for Teens

Rebecca Hutchinson – Media Specialist, Old Mill HS, Anne Arundel Co.

Betsy Whetstone – Media Specialist, Meade HS, Anne Arundel Co.

The Logistics of Creating a Space Teens WANT!

MS/HS

Session materials:

https://drive.google.com/open?id=1JD5IXqdmP8nYNhp7GbjazCzOHsj_GkI4JAGcFOJCfu4

Shenendoah:

Digital Privacy - It's about more than passwords

Laura Hicks - Media Specialist, Frederick HS, Frederick Co.

Student data privacy is about much more than confidential lists, grades and contact information. Come to this interactive session and learn what school librarians need to know about policies, legislation and risks. Be ahead of the curve on this very important issue on administrators' radar.

ALL

Session materials:

https://drive.google.com/open?id=1FKqdV06wpXjvBSD3MyxnXr321BjIAOI3mD_YFlsfSew

Crystal Ballroom:

Setting is Where It's At

Lynda Mullaly Hunt - Author

Lynda will discuss her books (One for the Murphys and Fish in a Tree, as well as a peek at two forthcoming books) and how their settings play a key role in conveying both emotion and character development. If done well setting should be another character. Suggestions for lessons will be included.

ES/MS

Session materials:

Grand Ballroom:

Collaborating with Teachers

Angie Miller – New Hampshire librarian, consultant, freelance writer

Strategies and ideas for creating a school-wide integrated information literacy plan through planning and co-teaching.

ALL

Session materials: